“GASP!” Breathtakingly Wraps!

Cast and crew of the much-anticipated 'fin-slapping adventures of a fish left home alone', “GASP!”, recently celebrated the completion of the animated series with a wrap party at Bar Cleveland in Sydney's Surry Hills.

Original creator, illustrator and author of “GASP!”, Terry Denton flew up from Melbourne and joined Jamie Oxenbould (the voice of “GASP!”), Tim Brooke-Hunt (Executive Head of Children's TV – ABC), Carla DeJong (Commissioning & Development Editor Children's TV - ABC) and Barbara Uecker (Head of Programming & Acquisitions Children's TV - ABC) for the special event.

“GASP!” will swim onto television screens in Australia later this year – this 52 x 11 minute series is based on the successful GASP!, ZAPT!, SPLAT!, SQUISH!, CRASH!, CHOMP! series of comic books by Australian author/illustrator/genius, Terry Denton.

If you like laughs, lunacy and all things illogical, then get ready for Gasp, the most happening fish the goldfish bowl has ever seen. Ever wondered what pets get up to when there are no humans around to spoil the fun? This is the place to find out in a show about a larger-than-life golden carp named Gasp, whose imagination is as big as his heart.

This fin-twitchingly funny series follows the zany antics of a goldfish and his fellow pet mates left home alone when Mum, Dad and their two kids, Ginger and Fred, have gone off to work, school or play. From boot scootin pond guppies to pet singing/dancing revues, anything can happen in this house -- and usually does! Gasp, Catflap, Dogbox and Beetlenick will be getting stuck into another seriously fun situation in every pun-packed episode.

Creator, Terry Denton and voice of “Gasp!”, Jamie Oxenbould
